

ANSANTAWAE LODGE No 89

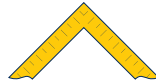

ANCIENT FREE & ACCEPTED MASONS OF THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT

JANUARY 2017 TRESTLEBOARD

Organized October 13th 1859 – Milford, Connecticut

Message from the East

Brothers,

January brings many of us face to face with change. There are little mundane changes like a new calendar. There are seemingly big changes like a new President being sworn in. There are changes we expect like new officers being installed at our lodge. Of course there are always unexpected changes that seem to come up. But we're often so caught up in 'changes' that we completely miss the 'shifts'.

If I asked you what country was the richest in the world, had the largest military, was the center of world trade & finance, had the strongest education system, had the highest standard of living, and its currency was the world standardyou'd know the answer right? Of course! Great Britain. In 1900. Things haven't just changed, they've shifted!

Consider this – Today, many of us work at jobs that didn't exist 20 years ago. Some of us live a retirement lifestyle our parents could never dream of. The major industries of our time are not built on cars or steel, but on a new commodity called information. The activities & demands of family life are completely different from just a generation ago. Shift happens, and it is not a new thing.

Freemasonry isn't just a change we make in our lives; it's a shift toward something that is constantly relevant and useful. Every other Friday night you'll find a gathering of good men who want to be better men. You'll find men who welcome each other as friends and share a day's experiences, good or bad, as brothers. You'll find men working hard to perfect their part of a degree. You'll find time-tested rituals with lessons & principles you can take with you to think over for days. You'll find men whose spirit may occasionally need a little lift. And you'll always find men willing to lend a hand in life.

As you shift into the New Year, I invite you to join us at lodge some night. You'll never have to work your way into your own lodge and you'll always find a warm reception. You never know what Freemasonry might offer you.....or what you might offer Freemasonry!

I hope to see you at lodge.

Fraternally,
Gregg Bateman

Milford Chapter #49, Royal Arch Masons

Stated Convocations Second Tuesday of each month at 7:30pm (except July & August)

Dear Companions,

Hope that everyone enjoyed the Holidays with family and friends.
I also hope that you are taking the time to relax, reflect, and recharge for the New Year.

As we say goodbye to 2016, I am looking forward to 2017.
I wanted to inform that the merger vote planned for February is being postponed. The Merger Committee is conducting further examination into the matter. We also will be conferring Royal Arch Degrees starting in Febuary.

As a reminder, there is no Council meeting in January. We do have Chapter meeting this month. Please come out and join us.
We welcome the comradery.

Happy New Years, Companions.

Fraternally,
James Whitaker, Jr.
