ANCIENT FREE & ACCEPTED MASONS OF THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT

APRIL 2017 TRESTLEBOARD

Organized October 13th 1859 – Milford, Connecticut

Message from the East

Brothers,

Traditionally, the first meeting in April is when Ansantawae Lodge recognizes its newest group of brothers to achieve 50 years of service in our great fraternity. Over the last few weeks, as we've been preparing for this event, I somewhat selfishly started to think about my own 50 year pin night. The year will be 2057 and I will be 78 years old. These days 78 isn't really that old so I like to think (hope!?) that I can make it.

2057... I'll have been a Past Master for 40 years and undoubtedly my work in 2017 will be long forgotten. I wonder what the brothers will be like then. Will we still be such an active lodge? Will we still have our streak on 'no repeat masters'? Will officers still be expected to spend 7 years of their lives working toward the East? Will new men still be interested in Freemasonry?

My wife is a few years younger than me, so I trust she'll be there that night. I wouldn't want to get that old without her! Hopefully our daughter can come, but who knows. She and her family might live 'off-planet' and the trip back home for such a brief evening might be too much.

I wonder if the district line officer from the Grand Lodge of Connecticut will present my pin. Or maybe it will be someone from the Grand Lodge of New England that does it by then. In the very futuristic world of Star Trek, money does not exist. So will they still waive my dues for 50 years of service?

It would be nice to get my pin in our beautiful lodge room on Broad Street. Do you think the master of Ansantawae will preside over the evening or will our lodge have a different name by then? Maybe we'll have merged or consolidated with another lodge in the area. Maybe the idea of "area" will have changed and I'll have to go to the Masonic Temple in New Haven... maybe farther?

The future is filled with questions and ultimately, like every brother who has reached the 50 year mark, we will just have to wait and see. And really, what will the little things matter? We will all still be brothers. We will all still find bits of greatness in each other. We will all still meet on the level and part upon the square.

I hope to see you at lodge....maybe even in 50 years,

Fraternally,

Gregg Bateman

Worshipful Master
