ANCIENT FREE & ACCEPTED MASONS OF THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT

MARCH 2019 TRESTLEBOARD

Organized October 13th 1859 – Milford, Connecticut

Message from the East

My Brothers,

In January of 1919 a successful 28-year-old Kansas City businessman, restaurateur, and community leader was asked to meet with a young man by the name of Louis G Lower. Lower was a sixteen-year-old boy who had recently lost his father, Elmer Lower, a member of Ivanhoe Lodge No. 446. The young business man himself had only become a member of the Ivanhoe Lodge seven years earlier. The business man's masonic success and his reputation up to that point, even in his short tenure with the fraternity, paved the way for his selection to act as the director of the Masonic Relief and Employment Bureau of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, a charity which would come to help hundreds of families.

The young businessman recognized an opportunity to offer real mentorship and guidance not only to this young man Louis Lower, but other young men who, for circumstances out of their control, were in a similar situation. Some like Lower, had also lost a father figure in their life or were in need of that gentle guidance only a Dad could provide. Lower and eight other young men along with the businessman, this brother of Ivanhoe Lodge, decided to form a club and held their first unofficial meeting March 24th 1919 one hundred years ago this month.

The Original Ten, as they would later be known, laid the foundation for what would become a world-renowned International Order. They would take the name of the great martyr, Jacque DeMolay, the last Grand Master of the Knights Templar because of his heroic fidelity in not giving up his comrades. The new Order's message and legacy of mentorship to young men twelve to twenty-one was built on seven cardinal virtues, Filial love, Reverence for sacred things, Courtesy, Comradeship, Fidelity, Cleanness, and Patriotism which is still taught today.

Because the need within the community for this mentorship program was so great, this the young businessman, the founder of this new Order, the Order of DeMolay, decided to give up his social service job with the Scottish Rite and become full-time Secretary General in the headquarters of the DeMolay organization within a few years.

One hundred years later what started as a simple act of charity, kindness and true brotherhood of man, talking with this young man resulted in a rich legacy of mentorship impacting generations that followed. It serves as a testament to the legacy each of us as Mason's can extend to our fellow man, our brothers, and the next generation of future leaders. It serves as a constant reminder that a better, richer, more optimistic future is within our grasp each time we pursue outreach in the community, proving the power of our good work, and the power of our masonic legacy.

As we move through the month of March, take a moment on March 24th to reflect on what this Centennial means. As a Brother Mason, let's recommit ourselves to follow the example of this twenty-eight-year-old businessman, Frank S. Land, or "Dad Land" as he is known in the Order of DeMolay and shine the great light of Masonry with pride in the hope that we too can make this world better for those in need around us. Wishing you and yours a wonderful Month!

Fraternally,
Robert G. Womack
Worshipful Master

Ansantawae Lodge Secretary's Corner

Eloquently outlined by Worshipful Master Robert G. Womack in his master's message. Frank S. Land, a Scottish Rite Freemason of Kansas City, Missouri and ten young men founded the Order of DeMolay, one hundred years ago this month. That small group of boys in 1919 has grown to an international fraternity whose membership numbers in the millions.

In 1922, Reverend W. Mark Sexson, a Freemason, was asked to make an address before South McAlester Chapter No. 149, Order of the Eastern Star, in McAlester, Oklahoma. As the Order of DeMolay had come under his close study during his Masonic activities, he suggested that a similar order for girls would be beneficial. Rainbow was created for young women whose fathers were members of the Masonic Lodge, and their friends. The Order of the Rainbow for Girls was formed with an Initiation class of 171 girls.

In the decades since their formation, masonic youth organizations have offered lessons and tools for young men and women to improve themselves and become better young adults. Developing civic awareness, personal responsibility and leadership skills, while building important bonds of friendship among its members.

Since the establishment of Milford Chapter Order of DeMolay in 1925, over 200 Senior DeMolay have become Master Masons. Seventeen of which have served as Worshipful Master of Ansantawae Lodge No. 89 and two Senior DeMolays of Milford Chapter have become Grand Masters of the State of Connecticut. In addition, since the establishment of Milford Assembly No. 4 in 1935, many brothers can trace their involvement with masonry to a family member who was a majority Rainbow Girl.

Masonic youth organizations are the fraternity of Freemasonry's greatest resource. They are the future of Ansantawae Lodge No. 89, our masonic fraternity and our country as a whole. We must continue to encourage and support them in their endeavors, as the future leaders of our community and nation. Please come and support our young men and women of Milford DeMolay and Rainbow for this special program at "Masonic Youth Night".

Fraternally;
Kevin M. Field, Secretary

Becoming a Rainbow Pledge Girl

What is a Pledge Girl?

Girls ages 6-10 are called Pledges. Though they cannot become a full Rainbow Girl until age 11, they are welcomed and encouraged to participate in many activities including charity work, installations, and many other assembly activities. At this stage, the pledges enjoy the “big sister” relationships they will form with the older girls as they work and play side by side, absorbing the positive energy that comes from being a good person inside and out.

DEMOLAY

MILFORD CHAPTER

Members of Milford Chapter, Order of DeMolay attending the 3rd New England Conclave in Springfield, MA on November 26th - 28th 1926

DEMOLAY INTERNATIONAL CELEBRATES ITS CENTENNIAL

In June 2018, DeMolay International entered its centennial year, celebrating 100 years of positive and moral influence for young men in their formative years. Based on the seven cardinal virtues of filial love, reverence, courtesy, comradeship, fidelity, cleanness and patriotism, membership in DeMolay provides a safe, worthwhile program where young men may excel into the successful leaders of the next generation.

Founded in Kansas City, Missouri in 1919, DeMolay International (formerly the DeMolay Council and the Order of DeMolay) enriches the lives of its members by providing a fun-filled program which develops key life skills such as public speaking, budgeting, fundraising, collaboration and event planning. Under the mentorship of certified adult volunteers, every DeMolay member is encouraged to develop at his own pace, making his own unique DeMolay experience.

DeMolay counts among its alumni a multitude of gentlemen who transformed the lessons and examples from their DeMolay experience into the foundation for their success in their personal or professional lives.

While the DeMolay International centennial celebration will be held in June 2019, these coming months are dedicated to the enhanced promotion of the organization's tenets and influence as a way to entice a new generation of youth to seek leadership opportunities such as those offered through the DeMolay program.

ABOUT DEMOLAY

DeMolay International is a community-based organization for young men, ages 12 to 21. DeMolay members learn life skills, responsibility and cooperation by working together to plan and carry out their customized program of social, sports and community service activities. Adult volunteers act as role models and advisors. Since 1919, DeMolay International has encouraged more than a million young men to become leaders of character, including many successful businessmen, public servants, entertainers and athletes.
